Training and Workshop Programme

Introduction to Criminal Law System: Criminal Law in India, Including White Collar and Cyber Crime

Past Attendees and Audience: Foreign Embassy Staff and Personal as well as Foreign Investors

Overview

KMNP Law provides Legal Training and Workshop programmes for Introduction to Criminal Law System. The essential purpose of criminal law is for protection against criminals and law-breakers. A criminal record is also having greater implications for individuals due to reputational concerns, regulatory implications, internal rules and regulations and even disciplinary standards. There is now a need to disclose such matters on employment applications, credit applications and visa and emigration/immigration applications.

Wondering what is a FIR and what is the role of Police?

Is there a difference in cognizable offences and non-cognizable offences?

What is an Inquiry and Investigation?

How to file a complaint and charge?

What to do after Police contacts you?

And more ...

We offer structured and dynamic seminar and training on key legal issues which can affect you and your business, followed by an open Q&A session where you can ask any questions you might have.

The training is subject to availability and booking confirmation. KMNP Law is available to provide this on an individual basis, key managers, and department wise basis. Please confirm your exact requirements when contacting us.

Our training will be followed by drinks and informal networking.
